

Results of the April 28, 2010 Post-It Note Exercise
Organized by Strategy Focus Areas and Prevailing Themes

Enabling Development	Number of Responses	Creating Transportation Choices	Number of Responses	Creating Unique Places	Number of Responses
Retail	45	Transit	44	Streetscaping	35
Dining	32	Walkability	32	Parks and Plazas	29
Development Incentives	32	Bicycling	26	River-oriented Recreation	27
Riverfront Development	31	Parking	16	High-Quality Design	21
Douglas Corridor	30	Inter-city Passenger Rail	9	Environmental Sustainability	15
Residential	21	Skywalks	4	Historic Preservation	10
Entertainment	20	Inter-city Bus	3	Clean-up/Maintenance	10
Grocery Store	11	Automobile	2	Theater District/Performing Arts	10
Office	9			Arts	9
Commerce Street Arts District	9			Century II	9
Hotel	8			Boathouse	8
Mixed-Use	8			Market Downtown	8
Union Station	7			Public Art	7
WaterWalk	7			Activities/Events	7
Arena Neighborhood	6			Library	6
Young Professionals	5			Surrounding Neighborhoods	6
Old Town	5			Public Safety	5
Artist Housing	3			Culture	5
Main Corridor	3			Amphitheater	5
Old Town West	3			Education	4
				Lawrence-Dumont Stadium	3
				Homelessness	3
				Kid Friendly	2

Note: Participants placed 438 post-it notes on blog boards during the April 28th "Focusing Workshop" on the Draft Vision Principles. The post-it notes suggested themes for action strategies to implement the vision principles. Many of the post-it notes suggested multiple themes; therefore, the number responses shown above exceeds 438.